

2020 Property Openings

Austin | Downtown

Opening this summer, the 140-room Canopy Austin is an urban retreat that blends the city's funky culture with Texas Hill Country charm. The hotel's second-floor rooftop pool and bar overlook lively West 6th Street and its restaurant flows into an outdoor courtyard. (renderings)

Baltimore | Harbor Point

Canopy Baltimore will open just in time for the summer boating season with waterfront views and contemporary nautical-inspired design. The 156-room LEED Silver hotel is in the new Harbor Point neighborhood, between Fells Point and the Inner Harbor. (renderings)

Cancun | La Isla

Canopy Cancun is nestled in La Isla, the city's newest retail complex, and overlooks the Nichupté Lagoon and ocean. The 175-room hotel features a stunning rooftop with a bar, pool and glass-box fitness center. (renderings)

Charlotte | SouthPark

The 150-room Canopy Charlotte will open in the upscale SouthPark neighborhood this spring with a casual atmosphere inspired by traditional Southern residences and 9,000 sq. ft. of event space. (renderings)

Dallas | Frisco Station

Drawing inspiration from the frontier and prairies of western Texas, Canopy Frisco Station will bring "ranch life for the modern Texan" to one of Dallas' newest neighborhoods. The 152-room hotel will open in spring, close major sports and entertainment venues. (renderings)

Dubai | Al Seef

Canopy Al Seef is located in the heart of old Dubai, alongside the Dubai Creek. The 200-room hotel features a Mediterranean restaurant and a rooftop pool and bar that offer panoramic views of the waterfront shops, cafes and more. (renderings)

Grand Rapids | Downtown

Canopy Grand Rapids will open downtown this summer with 150 rooms. It celebrates Grand Rapids' "Furniture City" roots with iconic mid-century modern design and is the perfect addition to the city that is now known as "Beer City USA" with a rooftop beer garden. (renderings)

Hangzhou | West Lake

Canopy West Lake is set to open this summer with 146 rooms and an indoor/outdoor restaurant. Similar to current-day Hangzhou, the hotel's design weaves modern sophistication with historic cultural elements. (renderings)

Jersey City | Arts District

Canopy Jersey City will open in the Arts District this spring. It features 211 rooms, an outdoor terrace, large event space with tons of natural light and studio space for local artists in the Canopy Central lobby. (renderings)

Kansas City | Downtown

Canopy Kansas City will open downtown in a former luxury department store later this year following renovations to restore its 1920s charm. It will offer 110 rooms, an interior champagne bar speakeasy and a rooftop bar. (renderings)

London | London City

The 340-room Canopy London City will open in fall, steps from the Tower of London. Its design celebrates East London's many lives, taking cues from the "Young British Artists" movement, the fabric shops that once existed in the neighborhood and the sleek buildings that form the financial district today. (renderings)

Memphis | Downtown

Blues Highway soul meets Mississippi River industry at Canopy Memphis with its one-of-a-kind rustic industrial design. The 170-room hotel will open downtown this fall, three blocks from Beale Street and steps from the baseball stadium. (renderings coming soon!)

Paris | Trocadero

Canopy Trocadero will open this fall in a building from the 1930s in Paris' 16th arrondissement. The 123-room hotel will feature common spaces that feel like a Parisian apartment and a rooftop bar and garden. (renderings)

Philadelphia | Center City

Canopy Philadelphia will open this spring in Center City's historic Stephen Girard building. The 236-room hotel fuses Philly's hip-hop and R&B culture with the building's 19th century Beaux Arts architecture. (renderings)

San Antonio | Riverwalk

An architectural beacon soaring 28 stories tall, Canopy San Antonio hovers over a portion of Riverwalk's oldest tavern and incorporates the facade of the Civil War-era Alamo Fish Market. The 195-room hotel will open in summer and features a cantilevered pool deck and bar. (renderings)

São Paulo | Jardins

Opening this spring, Canopy São Paulo offers 98 rooms and chic design inspired by the Jardins neighborhood's upscale offerings. The hotel's facade features a mural by Speto, a renowned graffiti artist in Brazil. (renderings)

Scottsdale | Old Town

Canopy Scottsdale will open in Old Town right in time for fall. The 177-room hotel will offer a pool, garden patio and rooftop bar, tied together by local creative craftsmanship and a rich color palette pulled from the area's beautiful vistas. (renderings)

Tempe | Downtown University Area

Canopy Tempe will open downtown this spring, across the street from Arizona State University, with a rooftop pool, terrace bar, cabanas and fire pit. The 200-room hotel's design mimics Arizona's natural canyon landscape and features a curved lobby ceiling. (renderings)

Washington, DC | Embassy Row

The 154-room Canopy Embassy Row opened in January between Dupont and Logan Circles with interior design inspired by DC landmarks and a whimsical art collection that celebrates diverse cultures. (renderings)

West Palm Beach | Downtown

Inspired by Florida's citrus groves and natural vegetation, the 150-room Canopy West Palm Beach will open in the heart of downtown this spring with a rooftop treehouse bar and a six-story fiber optic banyan tree in the lobby. (renderings)